Unit 1: Wrap Up

Bienvenue

One day Janet decided to go on an adventure. She took her car and went from London to Paris through the Channel tunnel. It goes under the sea! She was a cheese lover and during her stay she ate a different cheese everyday. It took her one year to try them all! Do you know how many cheeses that is? - 365

She also visited the Eiffel Tower which is 324 metres high, made out of iron and has 1665 steps. She was exhausted when she reached the top but the view was beautiful. Finally, she went skiing in the Alps, the home of wolves and bears. She enjoyed the fresh air and hot wine. What an adventure!

Bienvenue

Senegal has dry deserts in the North and tropical forests in the South. It has a rainy and a dry season. The people eat a lot of rice, and fresh fish, as Senegal has many fishing villages on the West coast.

Dakar is the capital of Senegal and it buzzes with vibrant markets. Folk music is widely enjoyed in Senegal and the djembé drum is a very popular instrument made with wooden base and goat skin cover.
